

April 2019

Leave No Trace Trainer Course – Shenandoah National Park, VA

When: Saturday, April 13 – Sunday, April 14

Where: Blackburn Trail Center, Round Hill, VA

Who: Adults (18+) This course takes place in and around a cabin located along the Appalachian Trail in Northern Virginia. Most outdoor activities will be conducted on the grounds in the immediate vicinity of the cabin. There is no backpacking, but we may take a short walk along the Appalachian Trail. Students have the option to stay overnight in the cabin facilities or pitch a tent outside.

Description: The Potomac Appalachian Trail Club's Trail Patrol is offering this two-day, cabin-based course designed to enhance your understanding of Leave No Trace practices and ethics and to increase your level of expertise and confidence in teaching Leave No Trace skills. Through focused activities, hands-on field experience and both formal and informal discussions, you will be introduced to concepts and methods that will advance your knowledge of Leave No Trace issues, expand your repertoire of low-impact skills and increase your effectiveness in teaching these important skills to others. This is a fun course where all participants have a part in demonstrating the choices that can be made to minimize our impact on the land and our resources.

On completion of this course, participants will be registered as Leave No Trace Trainers with the national Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics and will receive a certificate of course completion as well as their Leave No Trace Trainer lapel pin.

What to Bring: Participants will sleep in beds/cots inside the cabin, there are no linens supplied, so bring a sleeping bag and pillow. The cabin has electricity, a full kitchen and modern bathroom. Participants should pack a lunch for Saturday and Sunday all other meals will be provided. At the time of registration participants will receive a planning packet that will include a detailed packing list.

Instructors: Instructors are members of the Potomac Appalachian Trail Club's Trail Patrol who are also Leave No Trace Master Educators.

Cost: $60.00 for PATC Members, $80.00 for Non-PATC members. Join PATC at the time of registration and get the member price! The cost covers course materials and meals with the exception of lunch for Saturday and Sunday, which the participant should bring.

Contact: Visit www.patc.net/lnt to register or contact Cindy Kelly at TPLNT@patc.net for more information.

June 2019

Leave No Trace Trainer Course – Shenandoah National Park, VA

When: Saturday, June 22 – Sunday, June 23

Where: Shenandoah National Park, VA

Who: Adults (18+) with some camping and/or backpacking experience.

Description: The Potomac Appalachian Trail Club's Trail Patrol is offering this two-day, low-mileage backpacking format course designed to enhance your understanding of Leave No Trace practices and ethics and to increase your level of expertise and confidence in teaching Leave No Trace skills. Through focused activities, hands-on field experience and both formal and informal discussions, you will be introduced to concepts and methods that will advance your knowledge of Leave No Trace issues, expand your repertoire of low-impact skills and increase your effectiveness in teaching these important skills to others. Participants should be experienced campers or backpackers. Instruction will concentrate on the incorporation of low impact techniques in camping and backpacking settings, but we will not be teaching basic camping skills. This is a fun course where all participants have a part in demonstrating the choices that can be made to minimize our impact on the land and our resources.

On completion of this course, participants will be registered as Leave No Trace Trainers with the national Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics and will receive a certificate of course completion as well as their Leave No Trace Trainer lapel pin.

What to Bring: Personal backpacking gear. All group gear, such as stoves, cooking equipment and water treatment will be supplied. Participants should pack a trail lunch for Saturday and Sunday; all other meals will be provided. At the time of registration participants will receive a planning packet that will include a detailed packing list.

Instructors: Instructors are members of the Potomac Appalachian Trail Club's Trail Patrol who are also Leave No Trace Master Educators.

Cost: $60.00 for PATC Members, $80.00 for Non-PATC members. Join PATC at the time of registration and get the member price! The cost covers course materials and meals with the exception of lunch for Saturday and Sunday, which the participant should bring.
