

LEAVE NO TRACE CENTER FOR OUTDOOR ETHICS

DONOR PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics respects the privacy of our donors. We maintain the following policies to assure our donors that their personal information will be protected and will not be shared with any third party.

Information Collection

The Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics collects, uses, and maintains the following information from donors:

- Contact Information: Name, complete address, telephone number(s), email address.
- Donation Information: Donor donation amounts and dates, donor comments and suggestions, and giving history.

All credit card information is entered online through a secure page, sent to Leave No Trace, and processed by our staff. Once an online donation is submitted, secure measures are in place to ensure that a donor's credit card information is not compromised.

The Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics does not share or sell donor information.

The Leave No Trace Center For Outdoor Ethics Will Use Donor Information In The Following Ways:

- Help donors complete transactions
- Thank donors for their gifts
- Update donors about organizational activity
- Recognize donors
- Distribute gift receipts or statements
- Inform donors about upcoming events and fundraisers
- Analyze internal productivity and effectiveness
- Report to relevant federal and state agencies
- Contact donors about changes to this statement

As part of our donor recognition efforts, the Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics may publicize donor names through its annual report, newsletters, website, and promotional materials (in the case of sponsorships). Generally, the specific gift amount will not be identified, but the donor will be recognized under the level of giving category that is appropriate to their donation. Donors always have the option of remaining "anonymous" when making a donation and will not be publicly recognized.

Access to Information

All access to donor information is strictly limited to Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics personnel who need to process data. No unnecessary person, group or organization will be allowed access to such data. Board members may be given information on the names of donors, donor history and the amount of gifts in order to fulfill their responsibilities as directors of the organization. All board members and staff are required to maintain the confidentiality of donor information.

Opting Out of Mailings and Solicitations

The Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics contacts donors via direct mail, e-mail, and telephone. Any donor may request that the Foundation remove them from the Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics mailing list and/or specify the method of contact.
