

LEAVE NO TRACE STATE ADVOCATE POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Currently the Center is looking for volunteers to fill the State Advocate position in the following states; Alaska, Colorado, Connecticut, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Louisiana, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Dakota, Northern California, Oregon, Washington and Wisconsin.

PURPOSE

Volunteer State Advocates are the driving force of the Leave No Trace movement in their respective states. These individuals are the first line of contact for anyone looking for local Leave No Trace programming or education. State Advocates also work to engage individuals who are formally trained in Leave No Trace and anyone interested in volunteering with larger Leave No Trace efforts.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Build and coordinate a network of volunteers to support state wide Leave No Trace efforts.
- Provide support for local groups, individuals, businesses and organizations looking for Leave No Trace education, training or outreach.
- Respond to local Leave No Trace inquiries via email and phone.
- Provide local support for Center initiatives including Leave No Trace for Every Kid and Leave No Trace in Every Park.
- Track and communicate Leave No Trace education in your state through quarterly reporting.
- Manage small annual budget and distribute education materials.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Leave No Trace Master Educator or Trainer
- An interest and commitment to the Center's overall mission, goals and objectives.
- Previous experience with the Leave No Trace program
- Experience coordinating volunteers or some management experience is preferred
- Enthusiastic, self-motivated and organized
- Good verbal and written communication skills

- Basic computer skills

LENGTH OF SERVICE

State Advocates generally serve a two-year term. Upon completion of that term, Advocates may continue to serve based on their interest, accomplishments and needs of the Center. There is no time-requirement in terms of hours.

SUPPORT

General guidelines and resources are provided for various elements of the position as well as Center staff are available to answer questions and provide any assistance. Advocates are also provided a small budget and a discount for purchase of education and outreach materials from the Center's store.
